2nd deadline (official): 01/26/2020 – delivery Schwaförden

Confirmation of Entry: After completing your entry online, you receive a confirmation. In addition we will let you know how we use the data you entered. More information about the event and the schedule will be available on the website of DCNH e.V. LV Mitte (<https://lv-mitte.dcnh.de/>).

Parking Space for Camper and Caravan: You can book a place for your camper or caravan on the area of the event (does NOT apply to mushers attending the championships). Please apply separately by e-mail to Snow-Cup@t-online.de.

Booth fee: The fee amounts to 10 EUR. There is no power access. Payment is due together with the entry fee, no direct debit.

Photos taken at the event may be published in the CN and / or on the Internet.

Important: Show and honor rings are taking place outdoors in winter - please take care for enough shelter for you and the dogs you take with you!

The conformation classes follow the VDH show regulations (as published on the website of the VDH, <https://www.vdh.de/en/dog-shows/vdh-show-regulations/>).

When entering a dog for Champion Class or Working Class please add or hand in later a copy of the title or certificate to your application (deadline is the official deadline for entries). Otherwise the dog will be shifted to Open Class. There will be no re-shifting after the deadline or on the date of the event.

Only dogs that are registered in a studbook accredited by the VDH or the FCI and who are duly entered in time will be approved and listed in the catalogue. The VDH show regulations in the most current version are effective. Please bring along pedigrees or certificates of registration; those can be collected, when you get your dogs' numbers, and will be returned together with all documents after the show.

Every participant will receive a souvenir, a certificate for each dog shown and a catalogue. If the show cannot take place, §29 of the VDH show regulations will be effective.
